

It has come to my attention that the FCC is now considering making changes to the way FM radio is heard in my community, and that advocates of a new broadcast service known as Low Power FM (LPFM) are proposing to expand this service in a way that would allow the new LPFM stations to take priority over current FM translator service, and that my favorite radio station, K-LOVE, is at risk of being taken off the air.

1. K-LOVE is not only my favorite radio station, but many of my friends as well. It serves to knit us together, encourages us when we are down, and inspires us to do good things in our community.

2. If K-LOVE were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming we would lose what we consider to be very valuable programming. K-LOVE is LISTENER SUPPORTED, and many of us consider the programming so valuable in our lives that we send money every month to support K-LOVE. Why in the world would something else take away our CHOICE to have K-LOVE in our lives?

3. Service provided by K-LOVE is in the public interest because not only do they broadcast encouraging music, news, and community events, but they receive thousands of phone calls from listeners in need of counsel, prayer, and assistance finding community assistance resources.

Please do not take away our K-LOVE radio.

Sincerely, Cindi Lincoln
